2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA’s data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by “TFS” (too few students).

What perception data did you use?	Teacher and Parent Surveys
-----------------------------------	----------------------------

What does the perception data tell you?	Teacher surveys indicate a need for Professional Learning in the areas of rigorous instructional strategies of Differentiation and Co-Teaching. The surveys also reflect a need to address the area of "authentic student engagement". The surveys reflect a positive learning environment, culture, and community at Buford Academy. Parent surveys reflect their trust in school leaders, teachers, and staff. They are pleased with academic expectations and feel their children's needs are met.

What process data did you use?	Curriculum Calendars, Curriculum Meetings (PL Wednesdays), Data Talks, Kid Talks and Interventions, Common Assessments (Summative and Benchmarks), Colleague Observations, TKES observations, District-Wide and School-Wide Vertical Teaming, Fall and Spring Parent Conferences, PowerSchool (Student Management System), Newsletters, Websites, Email Blasts, Social Media (Twitter), Curriculum Night, PTO International Night, Arts Night, School Improvement Council, Local School Leadership Team Meetings, Faculty Meetings, Grade Level Meetings, Monthly SPED Meetings

What does your process data tell you?	Process data reflects a strong continuous improvement system at the local school level and system level. Faculty and staff continually use common assessments to collect data and analyze student growth. During data talks, teachers note trends in gains while also recording areas of concern for whole groups and individual students. Interventions are identified and implemented based on needs. Once a plan is designed for enrichment or remediation, the plan is executed, communicated and assessed for continual improvement.
---------------------------------------	--

What achievement data did you use?	Common Assessments (Formative, Summative, and Benchmarks), Georgia Milestones, IOWA, CogAT, ACCESS, Intervention Data, CCRPI
------------------------------------	---

What does your achievement data tell you?	According to the 2018 GA Milestone assessment data, at least 14% of students in each grade level are reading below grade level. While each grade level saw an increase in ELA scores as compared to the 2016 and 2017 school years, reading continues to be an area for improvement. This supports the fact that teachers need additional professional learning in the area of instructional strategies and differentiation.

What demographic data did you use?	Racial/Ethnic Data, Socioeconomic Data, Mobility Rate, Support Programs
--	--

What does the demographic data tell you?	Our lower socioeconomic, EL, and Special Education populations are the most transient and lowest performing subgroups at Buford Academy.
