The Old Mirror

6  Joan is in a big room.
14  There are many boxes and an old trunk.
20  Then Joan sees an old mirror.
24  Joan looks in it.
33  She sees a girl in a long, white dress.
41  The dress is made of fine, old lace.
48  The girl has on a green hat.
54  But wait. The girl is Joan.
65  “I can see what I looked like long ago,” thinks Joan.
71  “Mom!” Joan screams. “Please come quickly!”
80  Mom hears Joan call and runs to her room.
91  “It is fine, dear,” she says. “It was just a dream.”
102  Joan sits up in her bed and tells Mom about it.

Fluency:
WPM _________ - #Errors _________ = CWPM _________
(WPM: Words per minute Read) (CWPM: Correct Words Per Minute)

Accuracy: Correct Words per Minute : __________ = _______%
Words per Minute: