The Foolish Fox

10 Long ago a fox was out for a walk and
19 came to a fence. Behind the fence were some 30 plump, ripe grapes. “Those grapes look so good,” said the fox.
41 “They shall be my dinner.” But the grapes were on the 52 other side of the fence. The fox was not thin enough
56 to crawl underneath it.
69 “I will go home and wait until I grow thin,” thought the fox.
78 The fox ate nothing for three days. Soon he
86 was thin enough to crawl under the fence.
95 He gobbled up all the grapes that he wanted.
104 But he grew too fat to get back home.
113 “Now I must grow thin again,” thought the fox.
123 The fox hid under the grape vines for three days.
133 He ate nothing. After three days, he was able to 138 squeeze back under the fence.
147 “Never again will I be so foolish,” thought the 155 fox sadly as he made his way home.
